

Lordship Salvation and Biblical Repentance

Lordship Salvation	Repentance
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You must make Jesus Lord or Master over every area of your life.• You must become a follower of Christ.• You must meet the specific requirements of discipleship.• You must take up a cross and follow Jesus.• You must step out and obey His commands.• You must follow God's plan for your life.• You must give up all your sins and forsake your old ways.• You must die to yourself.• You must crucify yourself.• You must totally surrender you life to God.• You must promise to serve Jesus the rest of your days on earth.• You must be willing to pay the price of following Jesus.• You must promise to become a better person, count the cost of discipleship, and determine to live right the rest of your days on earth.• You must commit yourself to holy living so you can examine yourself and be sure that your faith is real or genuine.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sorrow and conviction over sin, a different attitude about sin, which results in a sincere desire to be liberated from sin (1 Thess. 1:9). Pastor Kelly Sensenig

If the left column sounds like legalism, it's because it is legalism! We must remember that repenting before God and pledging something to God for salvation are two different matters! Repentance is a person's recognition of their need for grace; it's not a person's attempt to merit or earn grace.
